Breaking Into This World

'Your Kingdom come.' Matthew 6:10 NKJV

Every time you're in conflict with someone, but you go to them and seek reconciliation and forgiveness - the Kingdom is breaking into this world. Every time you have a chunk of money and decide to give significantly to somebody who is hungry or homeless or poor - the Kingdom is breaking into the world.

Any time someone has an addiction and wants to partner with God so much that they are willing to get help from a loving community - the Kingdom is breaking into the world. Every time a workaholic parent decides to stop idolising their job, rearranges their life and begins to love and care for the family entrusted to them - the Kingdom is breaking into the world.

Every time you include someone who's lonely, every time you encourage someone who's defeated, every time you challenge somebody who's wandering off the path, and every time you serve the needy - the Kingdom of God is once more breaking into the world.

Jesus taught us to pray: 'Your Kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven' (Matthew 6:10 NKJV). Notice he didn't tell us to pray, 'Get me out of here so I can go up there!' His prayer was, 'Make things run down here, in my life, the way they run up there.'

The answer to this prayer begins with you personally: your body, your mind, your appetites, etc. Then it spreads to your workplace, your family, your neighbourhood, your church and your sphere of influence.

So, where do you want to see God's presence and power break into your world?

For me, it is in the FGB activities – healing, deliverance, evangelism and a growing membership. A healthy chapter meets weekly, commits in prayer, shares a message, testifies of His goodness, fellowships in love. That's the Kingdom breaking into... Are we doing that?

Growing in Christ, walking with Him, testifying of His goodness and seeking to be in union with Him. When we do that, the Kingdom is breaking into this world!
